Correspondence.

A BRITISH KNOT.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NATION.

Sir,—At St George's, Belgravia, Monday, is now open, until September 12, a number of early drawings executed by Gaspard Poussin (1612-1695), in the British Museum. The exhibition is unique, and it is hoped that it will prove a most successful one in the history of art. The drawings are of the highest quality, and they are sure to attract a large number of visitors. The exhibition is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and admission is free. The address of the exhibition is St George's, Belgravia, London, SW1. It is open every day, except Sunday. The exhibition is a great success, and it is expected that it will attract a large number of visitors. The address of the exhibition is St George's, Belgravia, London, SW1. It is open every day, except Sunday.